

brows to set their own standards of freedom by which to convert freedom into treason.

There are a good many other things we are going to get out of this war. When the soldier boys come home we are going to have 2 millions of patriots who, having fought for the flag, will make good citizens and thorough patriots.

The people of the United States are going to get more out of this war than will be returned to any other country in the world.—Des Moines Capital.

WHAT WE'LL GET FROM WAR.

Every traitor and every near traitor in the United States is inquiring "What are we going to get out of this war?"

Well, among other things, we are going to get a better grade of patriotism than we have been having.

We are going to put an end to building up foreign colonies in the United States as breeding places of treason.

We are going to quit making the foreigner believe he is the only creature on earth worth while.

We are going to love every foreigner who really becomes an American, and all others we are going to ship back home.

We are going to stop hiring men in banks and public offices simply because they speak foreign languages.

In this way, we expect to encourage the speaking of the English language. We are going to have consultations with the I. W. W.'s to ascertain whether or not they have a real grievance or any just cause for their treasonable mouthings and threats. If they have any just cause, we are going to remove it; then we are going to shut their mouths for good and all.

We are not going to let men come into the United States without some kind of a bond guaranteeing that they are not going to engage in burning property or in carrying on secret work on behalf of the country they came from.

Out of this war we are going to get a new United States. We are going to hate nobody, but we are going to be prepared to fight whenever necessary.

We are going to have the freest country in the world, but we are not going to allow any traitorous high-
