

August 21, 1918

INTERESTING LECTURE

An interesting lecture will be presented tomorrow evening in the college park in connection with the usual evening entertainment. The presenter is Sergeant A.G. Jorgensen, who has served in the war with the Canadian army. He has spent 23 months at the front. He was in the battles of Somme and Ypres. He was injured and has spent several months in a hospital. He was recently discharged due the injuries he has suffered. Based on his experience he will talk about life in the trenches. There will be a freewill donation collected on behalf of Serg. Jorgensen.